Madams/Sirs:

As you know, Microsoft was found guilty of violating antitrust laws. They've also demonstrated their lawlessness by flaunting the previous consent decree.

As an injured party, I insist that Microsoft be punished in some way commiserate with their crime.

Some ideas:

- Radical "cashectomy".
- Reimburse registered customers.
- Divestment (e.g. MSN, Expedia, all hardware, Xbox, etc.)
- Apply new accounting rules for employee stock options.

Thank you for your time.

Cheers, Jason Osgood
